Letter of No Impediment

A Letter of No Impediment is issued by the Department of Home Affairs to confirm the current marital status of an individual and confirms the right and the freedom of the person requiring it to get married. It is only valid for six months from the date of issue

Section 4: Do you need an Apostille attached to this certificate?

DIRCO Hague Convention Apostille

An apostille is a certificate that confirms the authenticity of your Letter of No Impediment.

This verifies that the document is legitimate and can be recognized in a foreign country that is a member of the Hague Apostille Convention.

What country is this apostille intended for?

Section 5: Filling out the DHA-1155 form on the next page
